

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a a blatant example of bias in the media.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies control the airwaves, we get more of what is beneficial to corporate america and less of what is good journalism.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. keep America's air waves free. Thank you.
